Made in London

From some of the most fabulous stage shows in the West End to Strictly Come Dancing in the UK and further afield, DSI London's glittering creations have been enjoyed by millions.

But did you know how important the "London" part of our name is to us? We will never forget our south London roots, which go back to the days of Hearn & Spencer in 1982. Today, every single dancewear item we sell is still handmade in the British capital.

It's not just a trademark – it's a commitment to quality and expertise. From our stunning couture Ballroom and Latin dresses to our collection practice dancewear, menswear and even our brand new Sara and Andrea range, all of it is brought to life in our London studio. And every single element is expertly looked after by our team of master craftsmen on site.

Today, we are also proud to be a "one-stop dance shop" – the only ballroom-focused company to provide branded products for every aspect of dance: we can prepare you for the dance floor from the shoes on your feet to the rhinestones in your hair and everything in between. Enjoy exploring the world of DSI London...

Costume designer Vicky Gill talks us through a few of last year's most popular glittering gowns.

The end of last year saw another fab-u-lous series of Strictly Come Dancing reach its thrilling conclusion with Stacey Dooley and Kevin Clifton lifting the glitterball on the night of the final. With costume genius Vicky Gill at the helm, DSI London is incredibly proud to have been involved with the creation of Strictly's costumes since 2007. As DSI London's managing director, Gerald Schwanzer, told the Daily Telegraph, it's a mammoth operation that can involve creating as many as 500 dresses and using up to 3.5 million rhinestones.

The launch show saw the wardrobe team clock up more than 600 man hours encompassing, design, manufacturing, styling, embellishment, dressing and studio time. From the corsetry-inspired pro girl outfits on the red carpet to the celebrities each in a different colour, from costume changes galore to a sultry Cuban routine introducing the new dancers in white, it was a feast for the eyes. All the celebrities looked wonderful at the launch, but Faye Tozer's sunshine-hued dress and Vick Hope's sparkling silver two-piece were picked out for particular praise on social media. Plus, Danny John-Jules's hat, which we embellished specially for the occasion, was a huge hit!

It is impossible to do justice to all the standout costumes from this series, but, looking back at a few highlights, one that caught the viewer's eye was Stacey Dooley's incredible monochrome mod dress in Movie Week. The colour scheme was simple but there was a lot going on with the stylish number, which really captured the 1960s look. A mini under-dress of White Lycra was cleverly embellished with strips of Black PVC (a very trendy fabric this year). The over-dress in Black Mesh with White Crepe detail gave the whole costume more movement for their foxtrot than a 1960s mini would, but Vicky Gill's genius was to create two amazing looks in one. The outfit was tied together with a striking belt of White matt-side Satin.

Another memorable outfit was Lauren Steadman's Evil Queen costume for Halloween. "Lauren was so excited," Vicky told us. "Everyone secretly likes a bit of dress up! Black cock feathers were a main feature of this garment – they were layered onto the low-plunge satin lapel base. The feathers were shaped, trimmed and layered in a brickwork fashion to the jawline giving a strong shape, but in such a way as not to irritate her neck, or hinder what was a full-on fabulous performance," she continued. Approximately 3,000 rhinestones in total were used on the garment. Vicky added: "A limited-edition silver sequin velvet fabric was used on the bodice, with a black mesh centre back panel!"

Can Vicky tell us anything about Dianne Buswell's paso dress, another favourite with the viewers? "It was a favourite of mine, too," she confessed. "Simple but effective. The Black Smooth Velvet dress with a Black Satin wide halterneck had Tan Mesh inserts running through the bodice, promoting Dianne's fantastic shape. The skirt had Black Pearl Chiffon godets and a Gold Pearl Chiffon lining, which was added in studio to lift and brighten the number on screen."

In Musicals Week Ashley Roberts' quickstep dress to Don't Rain On My Parade was something special – a Strictly take on vintage chic. "Tangerine Mesh was dyed to extinguish the vibrancy of colour for the outer layer, immediately putting the viewer at ease," said Vicky. "Black-covered buttons were positioned in a small square to fall in line with a small section of black at the centre front of the dress. A Tangerine Lycra leotard lining peeping through gave a little hint of excitement but not too much..." Of course, as it's Strictly, we needed a bit of bling, so Apricot crystals were worked through the bodice and basque to add some much-needed shine. Finally a three-tier skirt with Tangerine Georgette lining added some wonderful shape and movement, which was perfect for the quickstep.

In the semi-finals, Faye Tozer's Argentine tango was among our favourites. "It was very simple but had a fantastic shape for her and the performance," said Vicky. The dress was a class act like Faye herself with Navy Mesh over Burgundy with Light Siam AB stoning detail running all the way through. "It was longer than the normal Argentine tango dress but the central front and back splits allowed for the legwork on the dance," adds Vicky.

As for the final, what a night! "The showdance frocks were particularly fun," Vicky said. "From a beaded two-piece to a metallic lyrical number and show-stopping golden ballroom glamour. It was an absolutely fantastic series."

Strictly on tour

For those for whom the end of the Strictly series on TV leaves a giant Strictly-sized hole in their lives you will be happy to hear it's not over: Strictly Come Dancing: The Live Tour runs every January and February waltzing its way through supersized sequinfilled shows across the country.

For several years the fab-u-lous Craig Revel Horwood, who has a long and illustrious career in stage and theatre productions, has directed the tour. For 2019 the fans had a real treat as the other judges, Shirley Ballas, Dame Darcey Bussell and Bruno Toniol joined Craig on the Live Tour's judging panel.

While on the dance floor, last year's champion Stacey Dooley paired up with pro Aljaž Skorjanec, with finalists Ashley Roberts and Pasha Kovalev, Faye Tozer and Giovanni Pernice and Joe Sugg and Dianne Buswell all battled it out once more for their chance at the Live Tour glitterball every night. Semi-finalists Lauren Steadman and AJ Pritchard, as well as the popular partnerships of Dr Ranj Singh and Janette Manrara and Graeme Swann with new pro partner for the tour Karen Clifton joined them to create a wonderful family show full of all the fun and excitement and incredible dancing that fans love.

"And what about the frocks?" We can hear you say. Never fear, our formidable team work on the tour too, with costume designer Vicky Gill at the helm, to provide all the glitz, glamour and glitter you could hope for to leave audience spellbound.

Behind the seams

Add a bit of sparkle to your day with DSI London's new tour! Explore the studio where the stunning creations for Strictly Come Dancing and the competitive world of Ballroom and Latin are put together, from first design to final rhinestone.

Our guides will be the directors, or other key people within DSI London, who will show you the dresses that starred in the current and previous series of Strictly Come Dancing and share a few sparkling stories of what went on "behind the seams".

Enjoy the chance to ask your guide anything you'd like about the stunning dresses you see – and maybe even take a spin in one or two of the fab-u-lous frocks yourself!

The Behind the Seams tour is priced at £25 per individual at the DSI London headquarters in Croydon.

Alternatively, we can come to your organisation for just £500, plus travelling expenses. We can bring a model to show off the dresses or tailor-make the experience for you however you wish.

Jackie Pennington, operations manager at Berkeley Castle, where DSI London recently travelled to display the dresses, says: "Our first Strictly costume exhibition has been extremely popular with many Strictly fans pouring through our doors – consequently, visitor numbers have far exceeded expectations.

"DSI London were an absolute pleasure to work with, nothing was too much trouble. Our visitors were delighted that they were able to look at the dresses from a close range and were amazed by their exquisite detail."

The Behind the Seams tour at the DSI headquarters take place at selected Saturdays or Mondays at 2pm. For available dates and to purchase your ticket, visit www.dsi-london.com/behindtheseams

Costumes on stage and screen

DSI London works with Carnival Entertainment to produce thousands of costumes for P&O and Cunard Cruises, which tour the world on a huge number of ships. At the start of each project, Carnival's designer, Jodie Freeman, sends mood boards for each section of the shows they are going to put on, along with information for each ship. As the days pass, the empty project folder begins to fill up until it's bursting to the seams with designs, measurements, fabric samples, appliqués, stoning samples and specification drawings. These ideas soon come to life in DSI London's headquarters and once they have been photographed in our studio they are packaged and hand-delivered to Carnival to be distributed among the ships. Look out for them in action in one of Carnival Entertainment's fabulous shows this year! If you would like DSI London to create costumes for any of your stage productions, please email costume@dsi-london.com

It's been another incredible year for DSI London's Elite Performers and sponsored dancers.

Our fabulous team can be seen on dancefloors all over the world showcasing DSI London's cutting-edge designs and fabrics in Ballroom and Latin dancewear through every category: Juvenile, Junior, Youth, Amateur and Professional.

This autumn, we were thrilled to welcome our newest DSI Elite Performer Austin Joson to the fold. Austin joined the team just before the International Dance Championships and went on to achieve sixth place in the International Amateur Latin with his partner Nino Dzneldadze.

At the International, DSI superstars Igor Reznik and Mariia Polishchuk also achieved a fantastic result, coming third in the Amateur Ballroom, up from sixth place last year.

Also remarkable was the achievement of DSI Elite Performers Glenn-Richard Boyce and Cäroly Jänes, who triumphed as winners in the Under 21 Ballroom at the ages of just 17 and 15 respectively.

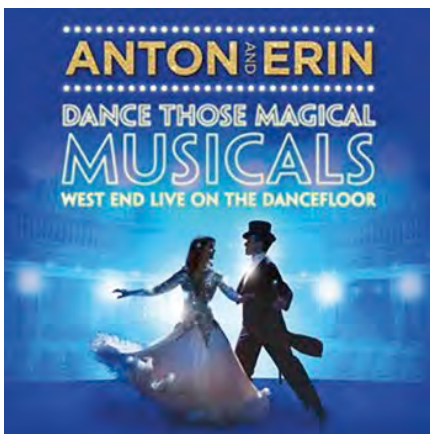

Our dancers achieved too many fantastic results in the last year to list them all here, but if you'd like to find out a little more about them, visit our Hall of Fame on the DSI London website:

The door is made of dark wood with ornate brass-colored metalwork, including a large handle and decorative panels. The background is a plain white wall.

Premium made to order

As with all our dancewear and practice wear our premium made to order is manufactured in our London studio and offers the perfect blend of comfort and style.

All our DSI Premium range are available in a colour of your choice, with a range of thirty five shades to pick from.

We understand ballroom dancers, so we know what they want.

In fact, the Premium Range garments are so stunning that the chances are you'll want to show them off in beginner, novice and intermediate competitions too, or even demonstrations and showcases.

DSI Collection dancewear

Inspired by the very latest fashion trends as well as the stunning look and feel our very own dance fabrics, this year's DSI London Collection wear sees two captivating colours take centre stage: our classic Black and sophisticated Burgundy – the height of understated elegance.

Our Collection wear makes the most of the rich, luxurious textures of high-quality crepe, satin, mesh and flock while giving classic Ballroom & Latin silhouettes a fresh modern twist.

Premium made-to-order

If our Collection Wear has inspired you but you want something a little more individual, consider our Premium Range service.

Using our Collection wear designs as a base template you are free to choose any colour and fabric with suitable stretch qualities to personalise your look. Order your closest regular dress size to create a fabulously fitted garment that reflects your own personal flair and style. We produce everything from our headquarters in London where we pour love and care into every detail.

As these garments are not stock items and are ordered on an individual basis please note that production can take between 2-4 weeks depending on the time of year. Premium Range items are strictly non-returnable as they are individually made to suit your own requirements. As such, please be extra sure to take your measurements accurately from our comprehensive measuring chart above.

How to order your Ballroom suit

- 1 Choose collection tailsuit or lounge suit.
- 2 Choose the fabric available for each relevant style.
- 3 Measure yourself according to measurement chart below.
- 4 Please note that measurements below are the actual finished sizes of the ready to wear suit.
- 5 For the correct fit we recommend to choose a suit approximately 5cm larger in chest, hips and waist against your own actual measurements.
Only the waist of the trouser should measure the same as your actual waist measurement.
- 6 For an additional explanation 'how to measure correctly' please visit our website and watch our relevant video clip.
- 7 Inform our sales team of your size and place your order.

Crepe

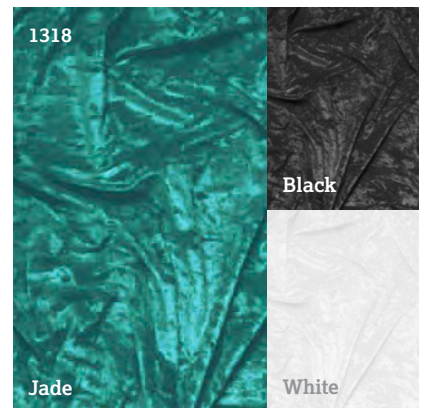

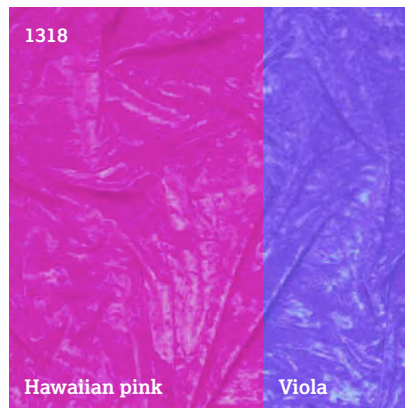

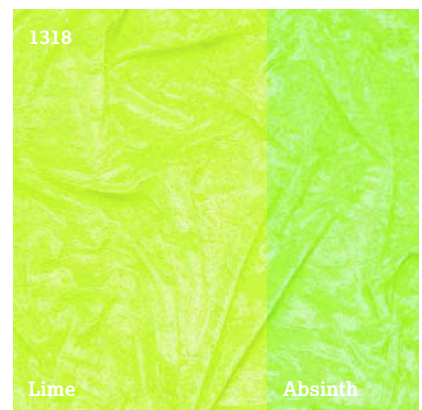

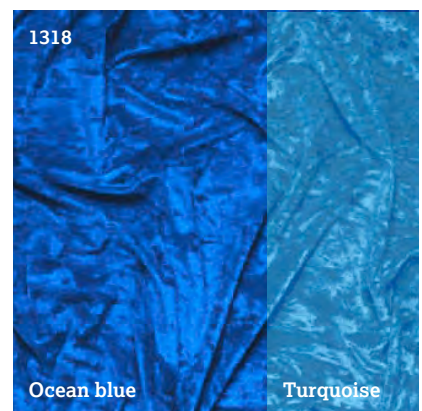

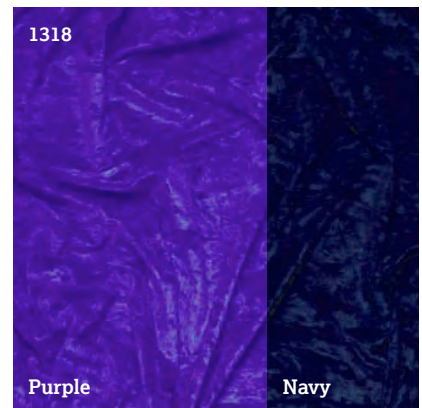

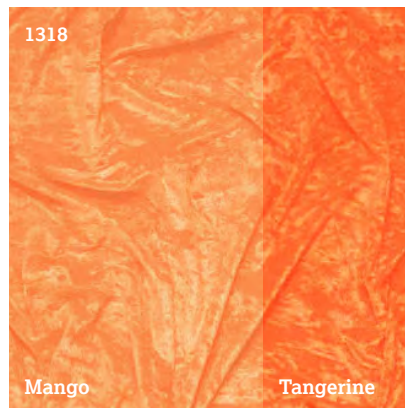

We are proud that the DSI Crepe is the only authentic crepe in the Dance market and the difference shows. Our commitment to providing simply the very best in Italian crepe has brought only joy to our customers who appreciate the drape, the softness and the flowing movement that only the finest original crepe can provide. Beautiful to work with and ethereal in its effect there is no comparison with inferior copies. Revel in the range of colours and enhance your performance with the ultimate for the discerning dancer.

Tactel fringe

Tactel fringes are the most commonly used dance trimmings and little wonder why: they accentuate and enhance the movement of the body creating a fuller and visually striking dance performance. Originally mostly used for Latin dresses, fringes are now also used for Ballroom and finding their way over dance practise wear even to high fashion.

DSI London offer rigid and elasticated fringes in all DSI colours. For optimal use we offer our dance fringes in 15cm, 30cm and 45cm width in all colours. A 60cm and 90 cm fringe is available in black, white, silver and gold.

While most fabric fringes are made of rayon, our luxury fringes are made of tactel ensuring the fringe does not fray. This technical innovation makes the DSI London fringes more durable allowing our fringe to be used for frequently worn items like dance practice wear along with performance or competition dresses.

Put a gloss on your dancing with our new patent shoe

Reflecting current fashions on the dance floor, DSI London is proud to introduce its first patent Latin American dance shoe for men. Using the softest and best quality leather, the sleek on-trend design also features padding for your ultimate comfort. It'll feel as if you're dancing on air. What's more, our new shoe will help to enhance your performance: the split-sole design allows for maximum foot flexibility for articulate shaping and the re-centred heel allows for better balance too.

Balliazzo
by
DSI
LONDON

- The high quality soft and pliable leather upper is combined with a padded lining to provide support, flexibility and comfort.
- The toe shape allows all the toes to be flat on the floor giving the dancer a natural stability of the body and freedom of movement for the foot in all dance moves.
- The signature Balliazzo Sculpted Latin heel and split sole accentuates the look of a pointed foot revealing the grace of each movement.
- All of the Balliazzo range are lightweight and have been designed to be “dance floor ready”. They do not need to be broken in and will feel like natural extensions of the foot.

Barbara Nagode Ambrož

BACK^{TO THE} ROOTS

“Barbara Nagode Ambrož manages to merge the authentic past with the present competitive style. Her decades of research into authentic Cuban movement principles, musical heritage, and cultural values are synthesized into a coherent historical analysis of current day competitive dancing.

This book is a must have for dance appreciators to gain insight and develop their knowledge of how the past can shape the future.”

Prof. Dr. Ruud Vermeij
